To: Whom It May Concern

RE: Maike Engelbrecht,
Bestbooks Inc.

We have been dealing with Bestbooks for our personal and business bookkeeping and tax preparation since 2004, and have been nothing short of delighted with the service we have always received. No matter how small our need or concern, they are eager to serve us in every way they can, with a smile.

Without exception, Maike and her staff have been most helpful, caring, clear and thorough in their explanations. We have the utmost regard for the diligence, integrity and professionalism with which they deal with their clients.

Should you be considering using Bestbooks Inc., we highly recommend them, and we would be most pleased to answer any questions.

Sincerely,

Janice Trenholme, M.A., EPC
